

Short Movie Competition 2019-20

A J Institute of Management organized a captivating Short Movie Competition for first-year students from sections A, B, and C on 13/03/2020. The program showed how creative the participants were when they shared interesting stories in a short time. It not only displayed their artistic skills but also encouraged students to explore storytelling in films. The audience saw a variety of themes and styles, each reflecting the participants' unique energy. For people who want to become filmmakers, this was a chance to show their talents and ideas.

